

So, So, So Long
Album:Reba Live
Reba McEntire

You know it seems like I've loved you forever
Who could be closer than you and I
People even say we're so much alike
But they don't know I've

Been lovin' you so long that I know every move you make
And every breath you take
What I feel is so strong
Sometimes I don't know where I end and where you begin
And you make me so happy feelin' like this
There's so much ahead that I don't wanna miss
Oh I wanna keep it so good
So, so, so long

So good, so real, and so right
oh I wanna keep it so good
so so so long

yeah yeah yeah

Oh darlin' don't think for a minute
Time could ever steal the thrill away
You've still got the power to be my man
You know you can

And every breath you take
What I feel is so strong
Sometimes I don't know where I end and where you begin
And you make me so happy feelin' like this
There's so much ahead that I don't wanna miss
Oh I wanna keep it so good
So, so, so long

Oh I wanna keep it so good
So so so long

So good
So fine
So real
So right

So, so, so long
So, so, so long
