

Wrong Night

(verse 1)

A
I set my mind to it said I wasn't gonna do it,
E E7
No how, no sir, no way,
E7
I wouldn't give my heart up keep my guard up,
A
And save it for another day,

(verse 2)

A
Then you walked in with that crazy grin,
And everything I swore before,
E
Got lost in your eyes,
And flew right out the door,

(chorus)

A7 D
Suddenly I heard love songs,
A
Playing real soft on the jukebox,
E
Somebody ordered up a moonlight,
A
And painted stars all across the sky,
A7 D
Is it gravity or destiny,
A
Either way there's nothing I can do,
E
Looks like I picked the wrong night,
D E A
Not to fall in love with you,

(verse 3)

I briefly resisted but my heart insisted,
It was gonna be giving in,
Hard as I was trying there was no denying,
Which one of us would win,
You came up beside me and asked,
If I'd be wanting to have a dance,
Right then I knew this thing was out of my hands,

(chorus)

A7 D
Suddenly I heard love songs,
A
Playing real soft on the jukebox,
E
Somebody ordered up a moonlight,
A
And painted stars all across the sky,
A7 D
Is it gravity or destiny,
A
Either way there's nothing I can do,
E
Looks like I picked the wrong night,
Not to fall in love with you,
