

Cocktails For Two
Words & Music by Arthur Johnston & Sam Coslow
Recorded by Spike Jones, 1944

(E7) A6 Dm7-5 A6
In some secluded rendezvous

E7 Edim E7
That overlooks the avenue

Bm7-5 E7
With someone sharing a delightful chat

Bm7-5 E7 A6 Edim E7
Of this and that and cocktails for two.

(E7) A6 Dm7-5 A6
As we enjoy a cigarette

E7 Edim E7
To some exquisite chansonette

Bm7-5 E7
Two hands are sure to slyly meet beneath

Bm7-5 E7 A6 D9 A
A sur-vi-ette with cocktails for two.

Bridge:

A7 Edim E7
My head may go reel - ing,

Dm6 A D9 A
But my heart will be o-be-dient

Cdim Bm7-5 E7 Bm7-5 E7 A Edim E7
With intoxicating kisses for the prin-ci-pal in-gre-dient.

(E7) A6 Dm7-5 A6
Most any afternoon at five

E7 Edim E7
We'll be so glad to be alive

Bm7-5 E7
Then maybe fortune will complete her plan

Bm7-5 E7 A6 D9 A
That all began with cocktails for two.
