

Heart

Words & Music by Richard Adler & Jerry Ross

Recorded by Eddie Fisher, 1955

From the Broadway musical "Damn Yankees"

G Dm7 G D7 G7
You've gotta have heart;

G+ C C/B A7
All you really need is heart.

Gdim F
When the odds are sayin you'll never win,

Fdim(III) Fdim C Dm7 G
That's when the grin should start.

G Dm7 G D7 G7
You've gotta have hope --

G+ C C/B A7
Mustn't sit around and mope.

Gdim F
Nothin's half as bad as it may appear;

Fdim(III) Fdim C Fdim C
Wait'll next year and hope

Bridge:

C7
When your luck is battin' zero,

F
Get your chin up off the floor,

D D7
Mister, you can be a hero --

Dm7 G
You can open any door.

D7 G
There's nothin to it but to do it.

G Dm7 G D7 G7
You gotta have heart,

G+ C C/B A7
Miles and miles and miles of heart

Gdim F
Oh it's fine to be a genius of course

Fm C CB A7
But keep that old horse before the cart

Dm7 G7 C F C
First you've gotta have heart
