It's So Easy to Forget
Words & Music by Gordon Charles & Jean David
Recorded by The Four Lads, 1957

A7 Em7 A7 Em7 A7 Edim D D9 D6
It's so easy to forget the things I learned in school,

D9 Cdim A7 Em7 A7 Edim Bm D7
Like what year Columbus sailed the ocean blue.

Am7 D9 D7 G G/B A A9 A D F#m Bm7
For I'm too busy remembering the tears we wouldn't cry.

C#7 Fdim(III) C#7 Fdim(III) A Fdim A E A7
When we said good-bye -- gee, I thought I'd die.

A7 Em7 A7 Em7 A7 Edim D D9 D6
It's so easy to forget the things in history books,

D9 Am7 D7 Am7 D7 D9 D7/9 G G/F# Em7
Things like who did what to whom at Waterloo.

Edim A7 D Edim G Gdim D Edim G
It's so easy to forget, so very easy to forget,

Gdim G G/F# Em7 Edim A7 D
When all I remember is you.

A7 Em7 A7 Em7 A7 Edim D D9 D6
It's so easy to forget the things in history books,

D9 Cdim A7 Em7 A7 Edim Bm D7
Things like who did what to whom at Waterloo.

Edim A7 D Edim G Gdim D Edim G
It's so easy to forget, so very easy to forget,

Gdim D A7 G F#m A D A7 G F#m Edim
When all I remember, all I remember is you.

G5 G5/F# G/B A7sus4 A7 D
All I remember is you.

Music resources from www.traditionalmusic.co.uk