G D C
She sits alone by a lamppost trying to find a thought that's escaped her mind She says Dad's the one I love the most his time's not far behind

She never lets me in only tells me where's she's been when she's had too much to drink I say that I don't care I just run my hands through her dark hair then I pray to God you gotta help me fly away

And just Let her cry, if the tears fall down like rain
Let her sing, if it eases all her pain
Let her go, let her walk right out on me
And if the sun comes up tomorrow
Let her be, let her be.

G D
This morning I woke up alone found a note standing by the phone saying baby, maybe I'll be back some day I wanted to look for you You walked in I didn't know just what I should do so I sat back down and had a beer and felt sorry for myself.

Saying...
Let her cry, if the tears fall down like rain
Let her sing, if it eases all her pain
Let her go, let her walk right out on me

And if the sun comes up tomorrow
