

Let's Pretend There's A Moon

Words & Music by Russ Columbo, Grace Hamilton & Jack Stern

Recorded by Russ Columbo, 1926

G G/F# Em C C/B D7

Here are you, and here am I,

G G/F# E7 C C/B Cdim

There ain't no moon up there on high,

G G+7 G7 C Cm

But it's a lovely night to spoon,

G C Cdim G G/F# D7

Let's pretend that there's a moon.

G G/F# Em C C/B D7

Nights like these were made for love,

G G/F# E7 C C/B Cdim

Re - gard - less of the moon up a - bove;

G G+7 G7 C Cm

The time and place are op - por - tune --

G C Cdim G G/F#

Let's pretend that there's a moon.

Bridge:

B7 Cdim B7 B7/F# B7 Cdim B7 B7/F#
The poets like to tell about that spell of moonlight bliss;

B7 B7/F# B7 Cdim B7 Cdim A
They weave it into ev' - ry rhyme;

Em7 A E7 A Fdim A
We need no moon a - bove to tell us when to kiss --

D Am7 Edim D7
Why should we be wasting time?

G G/F# Em C C/B D7
Here are we, and here is love;

G G/F# E7 Fdim C C/B Cdim
Who cares if there ain't no moon up a - bove?

G G+7 G7 C Cm
Let's pretend that this is the month of June,

G C Cdim G
Let's pretend that there's a moon.
