E G/A

          E                                  G                  A      E                  G
A E
Well I'm so tired of cryin' but I'm out, on the road again, I'm on the road again.

          E                                  G                  A      E                  G
A E
Well I'm so tired of cryin' but I'm out, on the road again, I'm on the road again.

          E                                  G          A          E      E G/A
I ain't got no woman, just to call my special friend.

A
You know the first time I traveled out, in the rain and snow, in the rain and
snow.

          E                                  G                  A      E                  G
A
You know the first time I traveled out, in the rain and snow, in the rain
snow.

          E                                  G          A          E      E G/A
I didn't have no payroll, not even no place to go.

          E                                  G          A          E          G      A      E
And my dear mother left me when I was quite young, when I was quite young.

          E                                  G          A          E          G      A      E
And my dear mother left me when I was quite young, when I was quite young.

          E                                  G          A          E      E G/A
She said "Lord have mercy, on my wicked son."

E G/A

          E                                  G                  A      E                  G      A      E
Take a hint from me mama please, don't you cry no more, don't you cry no more.

          E                                  G                  A      E                  G      A      E
Take a hint from me mama please, don't you cry no more, don't you cry no more.

          E                                  G          A          E      E G/A
Cause it's soon one morning, down the road I'm gone.

          E                                  G          A      E          G      A      E
And I'm going to leave the city, got to go away, got to go away

          E                                  G          A      E          G      A      E
And I'm going to leave the city, got to go away, got to go away

          E                                  G          A      E      E G/A
All this fussing and fighting, man I sure can't stay.

          E                                  G          A          E          G      A      E
But I ain't going down that long and lonesome road, all by myself.

          E                                  G          A          E          G      A      E
But I ain't going down that long and lonesome road, all by myself.

          E                                  G          A          E      E G/A
I can't carry you baby, gonna carry somebody else.
