Dillard and Clark (Gene Clark) *

D Am Em D

D Am
If the wild bird could speak
Em D
She'd tell of places you had been
Am
She's been in my dreams
Em D
And she knows all the ways of the wind

C G D
Polly, come home again
C G D
Spread your wings to the wind
Em C
I felt much of the pain
D
As it begins

D Am
Dreams cover much time
Em
Still they leave blind
D
The will to begin
Am
I searched for you there
Em D
And now look for you from within

C G D
Polly, come home again
C G D
Spread your wings to the wind
Em C
I felt much of the pain
D
As it begins
