

Porpoise Mouth chords
Country Joe and the Fish

Capo II *

Bm

Bm
The white ducks fly on past the sun,
A Bm
their wings flash silver at the moon.

Bm
While waters rush down the mountain tongue,
A Bm
my organs play a circus tune.

A Bm
I dance to the wonder of your feet,
A Bm
and sing to the joy of your knees.

Bm
The cold white dress on the mountain breast,
A Bm
paints the frozen trees.

Bm
The maple plants patterns in the sky,
A Bm
its leaves to kiss the wind

Bm
While scores of glittering bugs and flies,
A Bm
dance polkas on her limbs.

A Bm
I whistle symphonies of your face,
A Bm
and laugh for your hair so fine.

Bm
In startled greens of playground grass,
A Bm
a child jumps rope to rhyme.

Bm
Reeds and brass, the marching drums,
A Bm
make a joyous sound

Bm
Trees bend low with nuts and plums,
A Bm
then fall to find the ground.

A Bm
I hunger for your porpoise mouth,
A Bm
and stand erect for love.

Bm
The sun burns up the winter sky,
A Bm
and all the earth is love.
