

The Rain, The Park and Other Things
Words & Music by Artie Kornfield & Steve Duboff
Recorded by The Cowsills, 1967

Em G A7 DM7 D6
I saw her sitting in the rain, raindrops falling on her.

G G/F# Em7 A7 DM7
She didn't seem to care; she sat there and smiled at me.

Em G/B A7
And I knew (I knew, I knew, I knew, I knew)

G/B D DM7 D6
She could make me happy (happy, happy).

Em G/F# G G/B A7 G/B A7
Flowers in her hair, flowers everywhere.

Refrain:

G F#m Em
I love the flower girl, oh, I don't know just why.

A7
She simply caught my eye.

G F#m Em
I love the flower girl, she seemed so sweet and kind.

A7 G Bm7 A7
She crept into my mind, to my mind

Em G
I knew I had to say hello (hello, hello) --

A7 DM7 D6
She smiled up at me;

G G/F# Em7 A7 DM7
She took my hand and we walked through the park alone.

Em G/B A7
And I knew (I knew, I knew, I knew, I knew)

G/B D DM7 D6
She could make me happy (happy, happy).

Em G/F# G G/B A7 G/B A7
Flowers in her hair, flowers everywhere.

(Repeat Refrain)

Em G
Suddenly the sun broke through (see the sun).

G/B A7 DM7 D6
I turned around she was gone (where did she go).

Em G/F# G G/B A7 DM7 D6
And all I had left was one little flower from her hair.

Em G/B A7
But I knew (I knew, I knew, I knew, I knew)

G/B D DM7 D6
She had made me happy (happy, happy).

Em G/F# G G/B A7 G/B A7
Flowers in her hair, flowers everywhere.

Final Refrain (sing twice):

G F#m Em A7
I love the flower girl, was she reality, or just a dream to me?

G F#m Em A7
I love the flower girl, her love showed me the way to find a sunny day

Em7 G/B A7 (Em7/9 Gdim A7 D6)
Sun - ny day.
