A B
When your broken heart is on the mend

Every night it's the same old crowd
In smoky rooms
You catch a faint glimpse of love sometimes
But it never blooms

I've been around this block
A time or two
And I've made some big mistakes
But girl I promise you, I promise you

                  E
This is the last worthless evening
                  A
That you'll have to spend

Time time ticking, ticking away
B
Time time ticking, ticking away

People inside their houses
With the shades pulled down
God knows we could use some romance
In this sleepy bedroom town
I know you're still afraid
To rush into anything
But there're just so many summers
And just so many springs

This is the last worthless evening
That you'll have to spend
Just gimme a chance
                  A          E
To show you how to love again
