

When Your Lover Has Gone
Words & Music by Einer Aaron Swan
Recorded by Frank Sinatra, 1955

A7 Dm Gm A7 Dm A7
What good is the schem - ing, the planning the dreaming

Dm F A7
That comes with each new love affair?

A7 Dm Gm A7 Dm F A7
The love that you cher - ish so of - ten might per - ish

A E7-9 Fdim A7
And leave you with castles in air.

DM7 F#m Cdim D6 Dm+7 Dm7 Dm6
When you're a - lone, who cares for starlit skies?

G+7 Fdim E7 Gm+7 Fdim E7
When you're a - lone, the mag - ic moonlight dies.

D F#m Bm Bm7/E E7/9 E E6 E7
At break of dawn, there is no sun - rise

D F#m A+ Fdim D6 B7 GB A7+5
When your lover has gone.

DM7 F#m Cdim D6 Dm+7 Dm7 Dm6
What lone - ly hours, the evening shadows bring;

G+7 Fdim E7 Gm Cdim Fdim E7
What lone - ly hours, with mem' - ries ling - er - ing,

D F#m Bm Bm7/E D F#7 Cdim B7
Like faded flow'rs, life can't mean an - y - thing

G/B Edim A7+5 A7 G G/B D
When your lover has gone.