

Hark hark the song from youthful voices

Hark! Hark! The song
 from youthful voices breaking,
 Fresh from the heart
 its tuneful numbers flow;
 How sweet the song
 of happy children marching,
 Praising the Saviour
 as they onward go!

Hark! Hark! The song of holy adoration,
 Glory to Jesus, our Eternal King;
 Praise ye His name,
 exalt Him in the highest;
 Now, and for ever,
 shall the anthem ring.

Hark! Hark! The song,
 the grand old story telling;
 Oh, how it swells
 and echos far away!
 Life, love, and joy, through Him
 who hath redeemed us, Freely are offered
 in His name today.

Hark! Hark! The song of holy adoration,
 Glory to Jesus, our Eternal King;
 Praise ye His name,
 exalt Him in the highest;
 Now, and for ever,
 shall the anthem ring.

Sing, children, sing!
 The song you now are waking,
 Long, long ago
 on Judah's plain began;
 When from the sky was heard
 the midnight chorus,
 Peace from our Father,
 and goodwill to men.

Hark! Hark! The song of holy adoration,
 Glory to Jesus, our Eternal King;
 Praise ye His name,
 exalt Him in the highest;
 Now, and for ever,
 shall the anthem ring.

Sing, children, sing,
 till forward still advancing Rank after rank
 the royal standard wave!
 Sing, gladly sing the wonders
 of His greatness!
 Jesus, the Mighty One,
 the Strong to save!

Hark! Hark! The song of holy adoration,
 Glory to Jesus, our Eternal King;
 Praise ye His name,
 exalt Him in the highest;
 Now, and for ever,
 shall the anthem ring.
