One mans hands cant tear a prison down
Two mens hands cant tear a prison down
But if two and two and fifty make a million
Well see that day come round
Well see that day come round.

One mans eyes cant see the future clear.(as above)

One mans voice cant shout to make them hear.(as above)

One mans strength cant ban the atom bomb. (as above)

One mans strength cant roll the union on.(as above)
