

CANTEBURY, N. H.

1. Oh, the blessings rich and man - y, Which are mine to
2. E'en the pathway where I wandered Is illumed with share to - day! All the fountains of God's goodness Seem to heavenly light, Show-ing where are er - ror's footprints, Where the o - pen in my way. Bless - ed fruits of sweet re - pent - ance, steps to glo-ry's height. Lead me still, O Right - eous Pow - er!

Grown while strick - en 'neath the rod! Bless - ed les - sons Strength - en when I climb the steep: Guide me thro' the

of in - struc - tion Sent to lead me home to God!
dai - ly sow - ing Till e - ter - nal life I reap.

The musical score is written for two staves, treble and bass clef, in the key of D major (two sharps) and 4/4 time. It consists of six systems of music, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line. The lyrics are written below the vocal line. The score ends with a double bar line and repeat dots.