I've Been Railing at the Workload

I've Been Railing at the Workload

(Michael & Meredith Bergman & Steven H. Miller)

I've been railing at the workload

All the livelong day

I've been railing at the workload

But it will not go away.

Can't you see the deadline coming?

Feel the tension climb!

Can't you hear the client screaming,

"No more overtime!"

Bossman don't you blow

Bossman don't you blow

Bossman don't you blow your cor-or-ork,

Bossman don't you know

Bossman don't you know

Everybody feels the torque.

Someone's indecision is showing

"Start all over at square one!"

Somebody disgruntled is going

Home to get a tommy gun.

A-singing

"Blat! Splat! Rata-ti-tat-tat!

Scatter you suckers, ru-u-u-n

Blat! Splat! Rata-ti-tat-tat!

Strummin' on my tommy gun!"
