The image shows the musical notation for the piece 'Shallo Brown'. It consists of a single staff in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a time signature of 4/4. The melody is written in a simple, folk-like style. Below the staff, there are two rows of rhythmic notation. The first row contains 16 rhythmic symbols (vertical stems with flags) corresponding to the notes above. The second row contains 16 rhythmic symbols (vertical stems with flags) corresponding to the notes above. The symbols are arranged in a way that suggests a specific rhythm, possibly a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes.

The image shows the fingering notation for the piece 'Shallo Brown'. It consists of a grid of 8 columns and 3 rows. The first two rows contain the number '4' in the first column, indicating the time signature. The second row contains the number '4' in the first column, indicating the time signature. The third row contains the number '4' in the first column, indicating the time signature. The grid contains various numbers and symbols (circles with a dot) indicating the fingering for each note. The symbols are arranged in a way that suggests a specific fingering pattern for each note.
