

Give Me Back My Heart Again - song lyrics

American Old-time song lyrics from www.traditionalmusic.co.uk

Give Me Back My Heart Again.

Give me back my heart again,
I'll forget the happy past,
You have caused me grief and pain.
Shadows o'er my pathway cast;
Life to me was once so bright.
Ah! I dreamt 'twould so remain.
But my hopes have vanished quite,
Give me back my heart again-
But my hopes have vanished quite,
Give me back my heart again.

Give me back my heart again,
Now as strangers we must meet,
Other smiles will soon enchain.
Other lips thine own will greet;
Go, forget the wrong you've done,
Ne'er can I sweet peace regain;
Though it is a broken one,
Give me back my heart again-
Though it is a broken one,
Give me buck my heart again.
