YES, WE ALL WILL BE THERE.
Words and Music by Walter Bray.

I am going to take a trip down home,
I hope to see you all there;
I'm gwine to get married by de light of de moon;
Oh, yes! we all will be there.
Old Bob Ridley and Zip Coon,
Said that dey would be there;
Don't tarry long, but come right soon-
Oh, yes! we'll all be there.

Chorus.
Oh, yes! we'll all be there!
We will come there!
We will meet there-
Oh, yes! we will sing there.
And dance by the light of the moon.

We will have both mince and pumpkin pie,
I hope to see you all there!
We'll sing My Gal and Old Shoo Fly;
Yes! we all will be there.
Old Aunt Jemima-so contrary-
Said that she would be there;
And she would carry the news to Mary!
Yes! we all will be there.-Chorus.

Miss Eliza Jane and Suscy Brown
Said that they would be there;
Owning all the way from pepper town;
Oh, yes we all will be there.
If they don't come then I don't care.
But I wish they all will be there-
So long as they send me a lock of their hair;
Yes! we all will be there. - Chorus.
