

Young Lady Students' Chorus - song lyrics

American Old-time song lyrics from www.traditionalmusic.co.uk

Young Lady Students' Chorus.

From the opera of "Poor Jonathan."

We are young lady students, we, that hail from college halls!
And free are we, as free can be, within those classic walls.
Man's rule and sway we've cast away, for free we ever mean to be;
Yes, true and free, still happy students we will be!
Young Miss and Misses, Misses, Miss, with pat upon the cheek like this!
And on the ear a tweak and slender walking stick!
By Jupiter! we surely are young Miss and Misses, Misses, Miss;
A jolly lot we students are!
A jolly lot we students are!
