

Kisses Across The Stream - song lyrics

American Old-time song lyrics from www.traditionalmusic.co.uk

KISSES ACROSS THE STREAM.

Copyright, 1892, by Willis Woodward & Co.

Words by Hal Fai. Music by Adam Geibel.

I dreamt at eventide, love, that thou wert near;
The wailing wind outside, love, stood still to hear.
Though 'twas a dream-so real does seem
Those kisses, love, across the stream,
Those kisses across the stream;
Eyes of blue, kisses so true-or was't a dream?
Those kisses, kisses, those kisses across the stream.
Those kisses, kisses, those kisses across the stream?

I heard thy soothing voice, love, our hands they met.
Oh, how I did rejoice, love, I'll ne'er forget.
Though 'twas a dream, etc.

Thy presence filled my night, love, or was't a dream?
Could kisses float by night, love, across the stream!
Though 'twas a dream, etc.