TELL ME YOU LOVE ME STILL.

Copyright, MDCCCXCV, by Henry J. Wehman.

Words by Wm. H. Windom. Music by Samuel H. Speck.

Tell me you love me yet, whisper it low;
Tell it again, as you did long ago;
darling, though strangers have kept us apart,
Kiss me and tell me you love me, sweetheart;
Oh! for a day of the beautiful past!
Oh! for one hour of the glad long ago!
Dearest bend over, for time flieth fast;
Tell me you love me still, whisper it low.

Chorus.

Whisper it low, whisper it low;
Whisper of love, as you did long ago;
Yes, whisper it low. whisper it Tow;
Tell me you love me still, whisper it low.

Tell me you love me yet, whisper it low;
Only myself, dear, your secret shall know;
Silver is streaking thy tresses of gold;
Still am I true to the pledges of old;
Time can not wither the heart that is true;
Rob of its beauty the sweet long ago;
Darling forever, I'm dreaming of you;
Tell me you love me still, whisper it low.- Chorus.
