MY GIRL IS A WINNER.

Copyright, 1896, by Kattes & Co.

Words and Music by K. Nattes.

There's a charming, neat soubrette, who will act me crazy yet;
All her notions are so cute, she's a daisy, she's a "beaut."
When she comes upon the stage, this soubrette is all the rage;
What she says is all the go; she's a winner at the show.

Chorus.

My girl is a winner at the music halls,
Neat dancer and singer, and she gets the calls,
I take her to dinner when the curtain falls;
My girl is a winner at the music hulls.

She makes such a charming face when she shows a bit of lace;
All the bald heads have a fit while Just watching for this bit.
She gets lots of nice bouquets for her lovely winning ways;
This soubrette you ought to know, she's a winner at the show.- Chorus.
