Won't Somebody Give Me a Kiss?
Copyright, 1895, by H. W. Petrie.
Words by O. Amando. Music by Emily Smith.

I am such an innocent Miss,
Too innocent I've heard it said;
I'm just sixteen and have never been kissed,
But that ain't because I'm afraid-
I'd take one if I got the chance,
The trick, you bet, I ne'er would miss.
Won't somebody kiss me, and kiss me right now,
Just give me but one wee sweet kiss.

Refrain.
Won't somebody give me a kiss?
Just one, only one wee sweet kiss.
I hear it's so nice, just try it once, twice,
Won't somebody give me a kiss?
Won't somebody give me a kiss,
Just one, only one wee sweet kiss:
I hear it's so nice, just try it once, twice,
Won't somebody give me a kiss?

They say there is love in a kiss,
Oh, don't I wish I had some love:
They say the feeling is one of such bliss.
It beats all on earth or above:
Ma says I'm too young to have beans,
She never lets me out at night;
She thinks I'm a kid yet, and too young to know,
But all the boys think I'm just sight - Chor.
