THE FLAG OF LIBERTY.

Copyright. 1896. by Spaulding & Gray.

Come, boys, and gather, gather with the throng;
Come, boys, and join us, sing a mighty song;
Sing, boys, together, let your praises be
For Uncle Sam, for freedom, and the flag of liberty.

Chorus.

Sing, boys, sing, and let the bells of freedom ring;
Sing, and fill each Yankee heart with glee;
Let Old Glory's emblem fly, sing Old Glory's praise on high.
As we rally 'round the flag of liberty.

Stand, boys, beside us, stand for freedom's cause;
Whate'er betides us, think not of a pause;
Stand, boys, for Union, right and victory.
And wave above a nation's love the flag of liberty.-Chorus.
