

Castaway

Baby's got on her music tonight
With her hair piled high she looks so right
And I will walk beneath the night
All I want is, is to be the one to try

And now castaway, castaway, tonight all night
I walking deep beneath your cries
I call your name, no answer comes
Why am I wondering, why have I come
Can you live alone, all alone

And now baby knows I'll be there tonight
To rest in my last night of this time
We'll lean to exit the beginning of Trial by fire I don't know why
I want an answer baby why

Da da da da da da da da
Da da da da da da da da
Da da da da da da da da
Da da da da da da da da
