I had a job, I had a girl
 I had something going mister in this world
 I got laid off down at the lumber yard
 Our love went bad, times got hard
 Now I work down at the carwash
 Where all it ever does is rain
 Don't you feel like you're a rider on a downbound train

She just said "Joe I gotta go
 We had it once we ain't got it any more"
 She packed her bags left me behind
 She bought a ticket on the Central Line
 Nights as I sleep, I hear that whistle whining
 I feel her kiss in the misty rain
 And I feel like I'm a rider on a downbound train

Last night I heard your voice
 You were crying you were so alone
 You said your love had never died
 You were waiting for me at home
 Put on my jacket, I ran through the woods
 I ran till I thought my chest would explode
 There in the clearing, beyond the highway
 In the moonlight, our wedding house shone
 I rushed through the yard, I burst through the front door

My head pounding hard, up the stairs I climbed
 The room was dark, our bed was empty
 Then I heard that long whistle whine
 And I dropped to my knees, hung my head and cried
 Now I swing a sledge hammer on a railroad gang
 Knocking down them cross ties, working in the rain
 Now don't it feel like you're a rider on a downbound train
