

I am the doctor

Yeah if I can make you happy
Yeah and if I can make you smile
And if I can make you feel good
Just for a while
I'd wiggle my ears and stand on my head
Forget about your worries and don't sulk-as long as I can play
If I can turn your teardrops into a laught
Make you forget about the hard times, and forget the past
Do anything that you want me to
Forget about your worries and don't sulk, it's alright for you
Well you're screamin' and bitchin' about the hard times that you've had
You say that not a single day don;t go by Without you getting had
You show me all the things you bought with money you never had
And you're feelin' kinda sorry now and lookin' kinda sad
Well if you've a backache or a earache or too much LSD
Well I am the Doctor, won't you call me, call me
Now I am the Doctor, yeah wanna get you singing
Whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa, awhoa, whoa, la, la, la, la

If you got a backache, or an earache, or a headache
Or a toothache, or a bellyache, or any ache
If you got a borken car, a burned down bar
Your car smashed, you got whiplashed, your lovers gone, or you're all alone
Or you broke some of your bones, or you might just be a little too stoned
Well I am the Doctor, won't you come on and see me
I am the Doctor, won't you come and see me
I am the Doctor, one hundred percent guaranteed
Well I can cure nearly baby, all of your miseries
But you gotta take it easy, I said you gotta take it easy
Oh just forget about your bills
And all your little cheap thrills
Doesn't solve much
Just try to be cool
It's all right

Well I am the Doctor, won't you come on and see me
I am the Doctor, one hundred percent guaranteed
I can cure nearly all of your miseries
All you gotta do, I won't charge you no mammoth fee
Just come over to my office for free
All you gotta do, I said all you gotta do
I wanna get you singing, whoa whoa whoa whoa, awhoa, whoa, la, la, la, la

If I can make you happy
If I can make you smile
If I can mek you feel good
Just for a while
I'd wiggle my ears and stand on my head
Forget about your worries and don't sulk, as long as I can play
