

She's so fine

Hey baby

Shes vicious as a razor

Resting on your mainline

Shes brutal as an ace

Laid on the table at just the right time

Shes like a devil-woman

But shes locked in over-drive

Her eyes are cold stone

But shes backed by a power-glide

Shes sweet, shes educated

She knows about history, geometry

Shes so fine

Well the boys down there say

She swings the silver rod

Some kids call her angel

All the boys call her God, down on Lovers Lane

Well the kids down in Houston

Say shes cold but dynamite

Ah they know that lady wears them blue jeans oh so tight

She gets in my car and the highway bursts to life

And way down on E Street

That only happens once or twice

Shes sophisticated

Shes a lady, you know what I mean ?

Shes so fine

Oh she says I aint got the love

I aint got the time, aint gonna give you no kiss

Aint gonna hand ya

All I wants a ride, Sweet William

All I wants a ride, Sweet William

And its oh baby, oh baby

Wont you come, dont you wanna go for a ride

Ill get in my car and burn it up

Now switch on the radio and turn it up

And were gonna be burnin down a straight load

I want some love and I got to truck along (travel along)

Well shes vicious as a razor

Resting on your mainline

Shes brutal as an ace

Laid on the table at just the right time

Shes like a devil-woman

But shes locked in overdrive

Her eyes are cold stone

But her bodys backed by a power-glide

Shes so educated, shes got a nice mama

Shes got a nice pop, shes so fine

Oh and the boys say she swings a silver rod

The kids call her Angel

Some kids call her God, down on Lovers Lane

Be my bay, wont you be my lover

Come on bay, I said hey baby
