

Has Annie Been in Tonight?

Words and Music by Tom Paxton

Has Annie been in tonight? Have you seen Annie at all?
Annie and I had a fight and she took off down the hall.
If I don't find her soon, she won't be back for days.
She says that I'm half crazy and she's right, and say,
Has Annie been in tonight?

Did Annie drop in for a beer, or was she into the gin?
Ah, tell me if she was here, what kind of a mood was she in?
If she was angry still, I don't have a hope in hell.
I don't have a story to tell that's bright, and say,
Has Annie been in tonight?

She loves to live this way. It's Annie's favorite game.

Has she been here today, and did she mention my name?
Did Annie pop in to say, "hi," or did she stay for a while?
Was she jumping at that other guy, the one with the glistening smile?
Was she hanging onto his arm, and was she laughing out loud?
Did I tell you I'm too proud to fight, and say,
Has Annie been in tonight?

Ah, did Annie look happy or sad? Was there a look in her eyes?
Was her expression good or bad, and was she telling her lies?
Did she tell you that she left me, or that I'd thrown her out?
Its beyond a doubt she'd be right, and say,
Has Annie been in tonight?

She loves to live this way. It's Annie's favorite game.

Has she been here today? Did she mention my name?
Oh, has Annie been in tonight? Have you seen Annie at all?
Annie and I had a fight, and she took off down the hall.
If I don't find her soon, she won't be back for days.
She says that I'm half crazy and she's right, and say,
Has Annie been in tonight?
She says that I'm half crazy and she's right, and say,
