

O Light of light, by love inclined

O Light of light, by love inclined,
Jesus, Redeemer of mankind, with loving-kindness deign to hear from suppliant voices praise and prayer.

Thou who to raise our souls from hell didst deign in fleshly form to dwell, vouchsafe us, when our race is run, in thy fair body to be one.

More bright than day thy face did show, thy raiment whiter than the snow, when on the mount to mortals blest man's maker thou was manifest.

Two prophets, that had faith to see, with thine elect found company, where unto each, divinely shown, the Godhead veiled in form was known.

The heavens above his glory named, the Father's voice his Son proclaimed; to whom, the King of glory now, all faithful hearts adoring bow.

May all who seek thy praise aright through purer lives show forth thy light; so to the brightness of the skies by holy deeds our hearts shall rise.

Eternal God, to thee we raise, the King of kings, our hymn of praise, who Three in One and One in Three doth live and reign eternally.
