

Open Up Your Heart [and Let the Sunshine In] Stuart Hamblen

[G] Mommy told me [C] something a [G] little girl should know,
It's [D7] all about the devil and I've [G] learned to hate him [G] so
She said he causes [C] trouble when you [G] let him in the room

He will [D7] never ever leave you
If your [G] heart is [D7] filled with [G] gloom.

[Chorus]

So let the [C] sunshine in, [G] face it with a grin,
[D7] Smilers never lose, and [G] frowners never [G] win.
So let the [C] sunshine in, [G] face it with a grin,
[D7] Open up your heart and let the sun shine [G] in.

[G] When you are [C] unhappy the [G] devil wears a grin,
But oh [D7] he starts to running
When the [G] light comes pouring in
I know he'll be un [C] happy cause I'll [G] never wear a frown,
Maybe if [D7] we keep on smiling
He'll get [G] tired of [D7] hanging [G] round

If I forget to [C] say my prayers the [G] devil jumps with glee,
But oh [D7] he starts to running
When he [G] sees me on my [G] knees

[G] So if you're full of [C] trouble and you [G] never seem to win
Just [D7] open up your heart and let the sun shine [G] in.
