Stewball-crd Joan Baez (old English folk Skewball of 1741) GAMDGCD G \mathbf{Em} Am Stewball was a good horse, he wore his head high, D Dsus4 D CD G and the mane on his foretop, was fine as silk thread. G Em Am I rode him in England, I rode him in Spain, D Dsus4 D G CD and I never did lose, boys, I always did gain. G Em Am So come all you gamblers, wherever you are, GCD D Dsus4 D and don't bet your money on that little grey mare. G Em Am Most likely she`ll stumble, most likely she`ll fall, D Dsus4 D G C D but never you`ll lose, boys, on my noble Stewball. G Em Am As they were a-riding, `bout halfway round, CD D Dsus4 D G that grey mare she stumbled, and fell on the ground. G Em Am And way out yonder, ahead of them all, CD D Dsus4 D G came a-prancing and a-dancing, my noble Stewball. G Em Am Stewball was a race horse, and by the day he was mine, D Dsus4 D G C G he never drank water, he always drank wine.
