

Aint No God In Mexico

Verse 1:

D

E

Down the road a ways i've heard said a new day's coming on

A

D

Where the women folks are friendly and the law leaves you alone

E

I'll believe it when i see it and i haven't seen it yet

B

E

Don't mind me just keep on talking i'm just looking for my hat

Chorus 1:

E

There ain't no God in Mexico,ain't no way to understand

A

How that border crossing feeling makes a fool out of a man

E

If i'd never felt the sunshine then i would not curse the rain

A

If my feet could fit a railroad track,i guess i'd been a train

Verse 2:

E

Me and Louise Higgins-Botham used to chase across the yard

D

Back in 1947 that's when more than times were hard

E

Well pity me i didn't find the line in time like a fool

E

In front of God and everybody i politely blew my cool

Chorus 2:

E

Ain't no God in Mexico,ain't no comfort in the king

A

When you're down in Madamoris getting busted by the man

E

If i'd never felt the sunshine,Hell i would not curse the rain

A

If i hadn't been railroaded well i guess i'd been a train
