

Ashes of love

The love light that shines in your eyes
Has gone out to my surprise
We said good-bye, my surprise
I can't revive, your love is dead

Ashes of love, cold as ice
You made the bed, I'll pay the price
Our love is gone, there's no doubt
Ashes of love, the flames burned out

I trusted dead, our love would stand
You ever wish was my command
My heart tells me I must forget
I love you then, I love you yet

* Refrain
