Her sweet love's calling me

Thirty days now I've been gone out here in this world alone
But I can hear her sweet love's calling me
We're a thousand miles apart but she's here in my heart
Cause I can hear her sweet love's calling me

Oh, her sweet love's calling me
And her lonely arms keep reaching for someone that she needs
Oh, the teardrops are falling on my cheeks
Cause I can hear her sweet love's calling me

I remember how she cried the day I said good-bye
Now I can hear her sweet love's calling me
I don't know why I ever roamed leaving love like her's at home
But I can hear her sweet love's calling me

* Refrain
