

Bluegrass Songs - Lyrics
www.traditionalmusic.co.uk

I wish I said

You take your flower dress from the chair beside the bed
That's morning in the window looking cloudy
It's the coldest thing I've ever seen the way you dress today
Now that it's good-bye for you and me
I wish I said I love me one more time
But if I ask don't tell me, what did it matter
If I said I love you one more time

The rhythm of your hair fills your dresser mirror
You've combing out the night time we put there
It's the coldest things I've ever seen your hair upon the mirror
Now that it's the last time that I'll be here
I wish I said I love you one more time
But if I ask don't tell me, what did it matter
If I said I love you one more time

Our words have all been said there's nothing else to do
We can take them back if we went to
And that's how people freeze to death alone in tented rooms
Starting with a cold like me and you
I wish I said I love you one more time
But if I ask don't tell me, what did it matter
If I said I love you one more time