Let's live for tonight

Let's live for tonight dear and try to be gal
Tomorrow we might be apart
Let's live for tonight dear let love have it's way
For tomorrow we could have two broken hearts

Let's cast all our worries and heartaches saide
Forget what the future might hold
Let's live for tonight dear in a world all our own
For tomorrow we may have to be alone

Let's live for tonight dear and try to pretend
That we will never be alone
No matter what happens this night will be ours
What tomorrow holds, nobody ever knows

Let's live for tonight dear and try to be gay
Tomorrow we might be apart
Let's live for tonight dear, let love have it's way
For tomorrow we could have two broken hearts
