

Memories

Memories, memories
Memories of the one that I let go
Memories, memories
Memories of the one I still love so

My arms can't hold a memory
There's nothing there to hold
And thoughts of you can't warm me
When the nights are dark and cold
My lips can't kiss a memory
It has no lips to kiss
And just how long will I go on
With memories like this

* Refrain

Memories of the one I still love so
