

Bluegrass Songs - Lyrics
www.traditionalmusic.co.uk

More pretty girl than one

My mama told me last night
She gave me good advice
Better stop your rambling round, pretty boy
And marry you a loveing wife

Look down that lonesome road
Hang down your little head and cry
For thinking of those pretty little girls
And hoping I never will die

Look down that lonesome road
Before you travel on
I'm leaving you this lonesome song
To sing when I am gone

There's more pretty girls than one
There's more pretty girls than one
For every town I rambled around
There's more pretty girls than one