Reunion in Heaven

So often down here we'll have a reunion
Our loved ones and friends will be gathered around
Some faces are missed. they have gone home to heaven
They will be there with Jesus 'til the trumpet shall sound

What a wonderful time we'll have up in Glory
With our blessed Redeemer forever we'll see
And a crown he will give on that great judgment morning
What a happy reunion in Heaven will be

No crepes on the doors in that beautiful city
No sorrow or pain never more ever there
But a body we'll have, in the Saviour's own likeness
And a mansion Jesus said he'd go to prepare

* Refrain

I am longing to sit by the banks of the river
There's rest for the ones by the evergreen trees
I am longing to look in the face of my Saviour
And my loved ones who have gone, they are waiting for me
