

Bluegrass Songs - Lyrics

Someone you have forgotten

I'm just someone you have forgotten
And left me with these blues on my mind

I hear that lonesome whippoorwill calling
On a hill so far away
His heart's like mine now it's breaking
For someone that's gone away

I'm just someone you have forgotten
But in dreams I still call you mine
You broke a trusting heart that loves you
And left me with these blues on my mind

I remember the night that you told me
That forever you'd be mine
All the time you loved another
Loving me was just too blind

* Refrain
