Sweet Mary and the miles in between

Standing alone at a old country crossroad
Wondering which way will lead me to home
Ever so weary from chasing a dream
Thinking of Mary, Sweet Mary, and the miles in between

Crossroads around me tell me you found me
Found me, lead me, to the end of my dreams
Three roads will lead me from the one that may need me
But the other to Mary, Sweet Mary, and the miles in between

One lonely night I left out fo anger
Drifting and wasting my life's precious hours
But only last night I dreamed that a stranger
Was gathering for Mary, Sweet Mary, some beautiful flowers

* Refrain
