

Bluegrass Songs - Lyrics

This is the girl I love

In a church on a mountain far far away
We vowed we'd never part
You kept your promise to honor and obey
But then I broke your heart

And if you could see this misery
I know that you'd come home to me
There's no one else I'd rather have
To have your love I'd be so proud to say
This is the girl I love

What can I do dear, what can I say
To make you change your mind
If I could only have another chance
I'd never leave you behind

* Refrain
