

Madrigalinda
by Donovan

Oh, your love, dear, so precious
Every drop ambrosia
And you're dancing so gracious
Such a lady you are

Let me never far from you
Always hold me in your heart
And forever let us be true
Sad am I when we part

There have been times, when I lost you
Following some old dark dream
Only to find beyond my mind
Only our love is real

Lonely rambling through the meadows
I was young with old man's care
Now I wander through your garden
And all beauty we share

Lonely rambling through the meadows
I was young with old man's care
Now I wander through your garden
And all beauty we share

Oh, your love, dear, so precious
Every drop ambrosia
And you're dancing so gracious
Such a lady you are
