

Song For Ireland 2
Dubliners

Capo II

D A G D A D

D A
Walking all the day,
G D A D
by tall towers where falcons build their nests
D A
In silver wings they fly,
G D A D
they know the call of freedom in their breasts
G D
Saw Black Head against the sky,
Bm G D A
where twisted rocks may run down to the sea

G D A
Living on your Western shore,
D A Bm A
saw summer sunsets, I asked for more,
G D A
I stood by your Atlantic Sea,
G D A D
and I sang a song for Ireland

D A
Drinking all the day,
G D A D
in old pubs where fiddlers love to play
D A
Saw one touch the bow,
G D A D
he played a reel which seemed so grand and gay
G D
I stood on Dingle Beach and cast,
Bm G D A
in wild foam we found Atlantic bass,

G D A
Living on your Western shore,
D A Bm A
saw summer sunsets, I asked for more,
G D A
I stood by your Atlantic Sea,
G D A D
and I sang a song for Ireland

D A
Laughing all the day,
G D A D
with true friends who try to make you stay
D A
Telling jokes and news,
G D A D
and singing songs to while the time away,
G D
We watched the Galway salmon run, Bm G D A
like silver dancing, darting in the sun

G D A
Living on your Western shore,
D A Bm A

saw summer sunsets, I asked for more,
 G D A
 I stood by your Atlantic Sea,
 G D A D
 and I sang a song for Ireland

D A
 Dreaming in the night,
 G D A D
 I saw a land where no one had to fight
 D A
 And waking in your dawn,
 G D A D
 I saw you crying in the morning light
 G D
 Sleeping where the falcons fly,
 Bm G D A
 they twist and turn all in your air-blue sky

G D A
 Living on your Western shore,
 D A Bm A
 saw summer sunsets, I asked for more,
 G D A
 I stood by your Atlantic Sea,
 G D A D
 and I sang a song for Ireland
