

FOUNTAIN OF LOVE - ELVIS PRESLEY
(Words and music: Bill Giant / Jeff Lewis)

One thought of you, my heart begins churning,
I feel RETURNED to a fountain of love,
My lips and eyes, they ache to be near you,
To hold you here in my fountain of love.
Never be blue should your world start sinking,
Just come and drink from my fountain of love,
Well build a new world off on a high mountain,
Well live on our fountain of love.

One thought of you, my heart begins churning,
I feel RETURNED to a fountain of love,
My lips and eyes, they ache to be near you,
To hold you here in my fountain of love.
Never be blue should your world start sinking,
Just come and drink from my fountain of love,
Well build a new world off on a high mountain,
Well live on our fountain of love.

Well live on our fountain of love.
Well live on our fountain of love.
Well live on our fountain of love.

Recorded: 1961/03/18, first released on Pot Luck