

Thrill Of Your Love by Elvis Presley
(Words & music by Stanley Kesler)

Verse:

I have wished for the wealth
Of a great millionaire
I have reached for a bright star above
But the thrill of it all
To me seems so small
When compared to the thrill of your love

Chorus:

I'd rather give everything
That I own in this world
Than to be all alone and unloved
For no earthly price and no sacrifice
Is too much to give
For your love

(Repeat chorus)
