

You Gave Me A Mountain by Elvis Presley

C Am
 Born in the heat of the desert,
 Dm7 G7
 My mother died givin' me life;
 C Am
 Deprived of the love a Father,
 Dm7 G7
 Blamed for the loss of his wife.
 C Am
 You know, Lord, I've been in a prison,
 F G7
 For something that I've never done;
 C Em
 It's been one hill after another,
 F Dm7 G7
 But I've climbed them all one by one.

CHORUS

C F C
 But this time, Lord, You gave me a Mountain,
 F C G
 A Mountain I may never climb;
 C F C
 And it isn't a hill any longer,
 F C G
 You gave me a Mountain this time.

C Am
 My Woman got tired of the hardships,
 Dm7 G7
 Tired of the grief and the strife;
 C Am
 So tired of workin' for nothin',
 Dm7 G7
 Tired of bein' my wife,
 C Am
 She took my one ray of sun-shine,
 F G7
 She took my pride and my joy;
 C Em
 She took my reason for living,
 F Dm7 G7
 She took my small baby boy.

CHORUS

C F C
 So this time, Lord, you gave me a Mountain,
 F C G
 A Mountain I may never climb;
 C F C
 And it isn't a hill any longer,
 F C G
 You gave me a Mountain this time. o o o
